

BOOK REVIEWS by Jennifer Karchmer

I am a professional book reviewer who writes independent reviews. I am the Creator, Host & Producer of The Whatcom Wordsmith podcast, dedicated to writing and books. I am an award-winning journalist and internationally published writer. Currently, I own and manage Over the Shoulder Editorial, specializing in editing and proofreading nonfiction titles, including memoir, Self Help, How To and Addiction Recovery.

In my reviews, which are objective and honest, I share with readers whether I recommend the book. I base my reviews on these criteria: 1) editorial quality, 2) writing style & ability, and 3) story development.

My book reviews are typically 300-400 words.

My preference is to read the printed version of the book (please ask for my current mailing address). My second choice is to read a PDF or MSWord version. My third choice is to read via Kindle.

Your review comes with the following tag (which can be used on your book jacket and with promotional materials):

Jennifer Karchmer, Host & Producer of The Whatcom Wordsmith podcast, Book Journalist, Former CNNMoney Reporter, Owner of Over the Shoulder Editorial
